rvice
ur

?
f your
s to
s. iding
e
est

ıst

s Dis-
tion
basis

or, or
origin

uca-
grams
ties)

U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) ibits discrimination in all its programs and ities on the basis of race, color, national n, age, disability, and where applicable, sex, tal status, familial status, parental status, ion, sexual orientation, genetic information, ical beliefs, reprisal, or because all or part of dividual's income is derived from any public tance program. (Not all prohibited bases apply programs.) Persons with disabilities who re alternative means for communication of ram information (Braille, large print, audiotape, should contact USDA's TARGET Center at ) 720-2600 (voice and TDD).

e a complaint of discrimination, write to A, Director, Office of Civil Rights, 1400
pendence Avenue, S.W., Washington, DC 0-9410, or for Forest Service issues please call, ree, (866) 632-9992 (Voice). TDD users can ct USDA through local relay or the Federal at (800) 877-8339 (TDD) or (866) 377-8642 voice users). USDA is an equal opportunity der and employer.

ts

ith

eral

om
ent,
for d
d

t
o
r
chure

your
ion
ies to
These
(in
l

ing

nts,
hare
nts, or

e

ng

ing Federal funding or

nment
laska Native individual,
organization
agency, institution, or versity, college, or non-

nsibilities for
eral Civil Rights

rest Service, your lying with Federal Civil
are not limited to:
certifying that you will ghts laws. If you have a signed assurance from a sub-recipient is a local ion receiving a sub-
estry agency.
Justice for All" U.S.
lture poster (AD-475C)
on areas or other areas Contact your Forest
n copies.
ng statement about
d how to file a complaint
and outreach materials:

Federal law and Agriculture policy,
hibited from
e basis of race, color, age or disability. (Not

ll

n
on

cted

the

ive

ed

ith

r,

ms
,